

PLANS COMPLETED FOR AUTO RACES

Managers Say, All American Records Will Be Broken in Savannah Next Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SAVANNAH, GA., November 20.—Preparations for the grand prize and light car races to be held here Wednesday and Thursday are complete. Every day of practice has developed greater speed on the Savannah course, and drivers and team managers who have been on the ground for ten days say that all American records will be broken, and would not be surprised to see Nazzaro's world record shattered.

The course of 25.131 miles has been covered in 21:35 while the cars were tuning up, and it is freely predicted that laps will be made in the race in twenty minutes or better. Sizel, in his Renault, holds the record for the course so far, but last night he was beaten by Dury, in a DeDietrich; Hemery, in a Benz, and Rigal, in a Clement-Bayard.

The Chadwick or the Simplex racing cars have not arrived yet, so Haupt, who will drive the Renault, and Joe Seymour, who will pilot the Simplex, are going over the course with other drivers and in touring cars.

The technical committee of the A. C. A. has up before it the matter of the entry of the Renault, and it will probably run, but the driver has not been nominated yet. Strang, who will drive one of these cars, is not looked upon as a possibility now, since Strang was killed in Birmingham in the twenty-four-hour race.

The two men were warm friends, and had ridden together in several races, and since the untimely death of Strang, Haupt has seemed to have lost his nerve temporarily.

Strang's friends commiserated with him for entering in the race at Birmingham on the very eve of the grand prize, but he did not heed them, and while he came back safe, it was only by the merest chance that it was not him instead of Strang who was killed. Strang had been driving the car, and had just given over his place to the unfortunate Strang, when the tire blew out and the machine overturned on him.

Nazzaro's Favorite. Nazzaro is easily the favorite in the race, but Rigal, in a Clement-Bayard, has seen his stock take a shoot upward after he drove first place. Rigal is the eccentric driver of the Simplex.

It takes him about two laps to get settled in the running, and as he drew first place the manager says he will have a chance to get over these bad laps with nothing to worry him. After that they say he will do good running, as he did in the Grand Prix when he passed twenty-three cars after the race was half over.

If any of the American cars have a chance in the Grand Prix it is probably the Chadwick or the Simplex. While Haupt in the Chadwick looks like the most formidable contender among the Americans. The Acme entry is only geared to ninety miles an hour, but Zeonke says he expects to win by steady going. There are several stretches on the course where the drivers say a car will have to make 100 miles an hour on every lap to be a contender after the race is well on.

In order to urge the drivers to let out everything they have from the start to the finish the Savannah Automobile Club has added an extra $2,500 to the man who breaks the world's record. This makes the race worth about $15,000 to the winner, besides the assurance that he will have a mount for the next few years.

Turner Wants a Match. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., November 20.—Joe Turner, the wrestler who recently defeated Peter James in Washington, is here to make an effort to secure a match with the champion of the middleweight championship of Texas. Ryan has been here for nearly six months, and has never been beaten since he came to the city. There is a belief that there is a quaking interest here in wrestling and several good, clean and straight matches will make it a paying proposition.

AMUSEMENTS "Marrying Mary" and Night—Bijou, Matinee and Night—"Zira."

The cast supporting Florence Gear in "Marrying Mary," the smart musical play which will be seen at the Academy on Saturday, matinee and night, is as complete as could be wished for, even for a play that demands as much as does this play with music. For not only must the leading persons in the drama be excellent comedians, but they must be possessed of extraordinary good singing voices as well. So Jules Murry, who makes the production, searched high and low in order to fill each part with an exactly fitting actor and singer. Harry B. Roche has been cast for the part of the "Merry" Ed. Metcalfe, the famous basso, formerly of the Bostonians, sings the role of the dashing Colonel Henry Clay Zuppper, and to Jules Cluzetti, one of the most famous impersonators of French characters on the American stage, is given the role of the French postkeeper, Monsieur Archambault. The Rev. Thelma Throckmorton has some delightful songs, with chorus accompaniment, and she is the merry rictor of the fashionable at Newport. —will be played by Augustus Collett, and Bessie Graham plays the part of the little French maid, Flurette. To insure perfection of detail, Mr. Murry has engaged F. Muller, for musical director, under whose able supervision every musical detail has been worked out.

LOSERS GOES INTO THE LAST PLACE

Richmond and William and Mary Will Each Fight Hard To-Day to Regain Lost Laurels.

Should Richmond College lose her game to William and Mary College this afternoon, it will mean that the Spider eleven of 1908 will be classed as the poorest of the four teams comprising the eastern collegiate division of Virginia. Should she win, and should Randolph-Macon take the game in Petersburg from Hampden-Sidney, it will mean that Richmond will have a claim to regain lost laurels, and will be given an opportunity to rise in the classification as the equal of any of her opponents.

William and Mary, should she lose, will be classed as the worst team, while should she win, she will be classed above Richmond, and the equal of the defeated team in the Petersburg contest. The two elevens will go into the contest this evening with all their regulars in the play. There is not a crumple on either team, and the coaches promise a hard-fought struggle.

Neither team has the advantage of weight, and though odds are with Richmond, there are those who are willing to put their bets at even money on the Williamsburgers. Many students will accompany the William and Mary eleven to Richmond, and the Richmond contingent will also be out characterized by hard practice by each team, and as much depends on the struggle, a lively contest is predicted.

Condens. of West Point, will referee, and the umpire will be Knight, of Princeton. The whistle blows at 3:30 o'clock.

Following is the probable line-up of the teams:

R. C. Position. W. & M. Saunders, right end, Schlossberg, right end, right tackle, Porter, right tackle, center, Coker, left tackle, center, Lee, left tackle, left guard, Wilkinson, left guard, left tackle, Taylor, left guard, left tackle, Warner, left guard, left tackle, Hall, left guard, left tackle, Allison, left guard, left tackle, Chambers, right half, Drivers, Meredith, left half, Cohen.

YOUNG SPRINTERS OFF FOR CAPITAL

Seven Hundred Runners Carry-ing Message from New York to Roosevelt.

NEW YORK, November 20.—With cheers from several hundred school-boys and fellow-members of the Young Men's Christian Association to spur them on, the young athletes engaged in the relay race organized by the physical department of the Y. M. C. A. between this city and Washington, started on their 241-mile sprint at 3:45 to-day, the runners bearing a message in a silver tube to President Roosevelt.

The start was made from the international headquarters located in East Twenty-eighth street, where R. C. Morse, general secretary of the international committee of the association, delivered the silver tube into the hand of the first runner, George Watson, a high school pupil.

From the East Twenty-eighth street headquarters the runners carried the silver tube to the West Twenty-third street ferry, each runner springing a hundred yards with it and passing it on. From Jersey City to Newark the relays were 150 yards, and from Newark on they lengthened out to a quarter mile.

From Newark, the itinerary is through Elizabeth, Plainfield, Princeton and Trenton, where the message will remain over night. At 6 o'clock Saturday morning the race for Washington will be resumed by way of Camden, Wilmington and Baltimore.

Unless some unexpected hitch occurs the message will reach the hands of the President at 11:30 Saturday night. Altogether 700 runners will participate in the run. The President's son, Quentin, will be among the runners carrying the message through Washington.

The message contained a request from the boys to the President, which the latter will make public if he so desires.

Results in Good Shape. ST. PAUL, MINN., November 20.—The St. Paul Indian football team is here in good shape for the season's work. The team went out for a practice, which was said to be satisfactory all around.

It would be impossible to give too much credit and praise to Word, of High School, the backbone of his team, and the star of the league. There can be no hesitancy in awarding to him, with emphasis, the first place as half back. There has been no better offensive work by any half back since the league began. As often as he was called on he rounded end or went through the line for long, consistent gains. In running back punts he was superb. Accurately handling the kick, he would often run it back up the field, passing player after player, until he had returned the ball to beyond the point from which it was put in play.

His defensive work was of the same quality. He was everywhere at once. If a runner rounded the end or put through the line it was always Word who pulled him down. The captaincy of the All-Prep. team is likewise awarded to this man, not only because of his knowledge and game and skill, but because of the cleanliness and manliness that characterizes his every action.

The other half goes to Briggs, of Academy. Next to Word, he was the strongest defensive half in the league. He was famous for breaking up the run, and with a past of a few weeks he was a guiding star in the league. With a Miller and another back like Miller any team would be made to look well to its laurels.

Coach Robinson. Shelton, of High School, is awarded first place as full back, over Scott, of Academy, a narrow margin. Both were good men, but in steady ground-gaining and good defensive work Shelton is perhaps the better of the two. As a goal-kicker he is also a valuable man.

High School has for the last three years carried off the championship of the league. She has put out some of the finest players of any of the three teams, but their consistent success and the Hon's share of the glory is due to that brilliant coach and most excellent man, Mr. Robinson.

When the season of 1908 opened, and High School commenced practice with fifteen or twenty of the rawest recruits, with the most unpromising material, the result of the season was a decided last it would be more than they expected. How High School, under the coaching of Robinson, finally developed into the fastest and strongest team of the league is a matter of common knowledge to all who have witnessed this year's games. For his mastery coaching, excellent ability and true worth, Robinson is awarded the position of coach for the All-Prep. team for 1908.

ALL-STAR PREP. SCHOOL EVEN RUN AT VARSITY

Word, of High School, Star of the Year on the Local Gridiron.

The growing interest in preparatory school football in Richmond, and the increasing excellence of the style of play by the three teams comprising the league, has led to much discussion among the lovers of the game as to which team displayed the best skill, and which of the players excelled in their particular positions.

As a means of deciding this discussion in some degree, and likewise establishing a precedent which may be followed in the future and thereby raise the standard of individual play, the writers have selected an all-preparatory school team. No man whose play has been characterized by unnecessary roughness or unsportsmanlike conduct is eligible.

The team is as follows: End—Heckler (McGuire's), Van Peit (High School). Tackles—Adair (McGuire's), Saunders (Academy). Guards—Caldor (High School), Johnson (Academy). Quarter Back—Miller (McGuire's). Halves—Word (High School), Capt. Briggs (Academy). Full Back—Shelton (High School). Coach—Robinson (High School).

In the selection of ends both offensive and defensive work have been considered. Heckler, of McGuire's, showed up particularly strong in defensive play. In getting down under punts, in handling forward passes and in throwing his men behind the line for a loss, he was especially strong. Van Peit, of High School, was unquestionably the best offensive end in the league. Time and again in the last game of the season he rounded the opposite end for five, ten, fifteen and twenty yards. For speed, sureness in tackling and quickness in taking advantage of his opponent's error, he was unexcelled. His work in handling forward passes was at times spectacular.

To Adair, of McGuire's, is awarded first place as tackle. A fast player and a clever blocker, he is invaluable to his team. His defensive work was of the first class.

Good offensive and defensive work, together with weight and skill, give to Saunders, of Academy, the other tackle. With the exception of Knott, he was the best tackle in the academy's line.

Knott, of Academy, is without doubt the best center of the league has produced in the three years of its existence. Accurate in passing, and a good punter, he is a valuable asset to his team. He is a fast player and a clever blocker, he is invaluable to his team. His defensive work was of the first class.

The selection of a quarter back is a comparatively easy matter. Miller, of McGuire's, so far surpasses all others as to be in a class to himself. His mastery of the game, his handling of punts and his beautiful offensive work, all have won for him the admiration of all who have witnessed this year's games.

Word is Captain. It would be impossible to give too much credit and praise to Word, of High School, the backbone of his team, and the star of the league. There can be no hesitancy in awarding to him, with emphasis, the first place as half back. There has been no better offensive work by any half back since the league began. RACE WON BY WINSTON S. LINDSAY—TWENTY-SEVEN ENTRIES FOR THE START.

Race Won by Winston S. Lindsay—Twenty-Seven Entries for the Start.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 20.—The race of more than usual interest at Virginia this afternoon was the third annual cross-country run, in which there were twenty-seven entries. The start was made at the gymnasium at 4:30 o'clock, the course being the old Spring Springs Road, and concluding with one lap on the cinder track at Lambeth Field, the distance being approximately four miles. It was a handicap run for menials and also a time prize.

The race was won by Winston S. Lindsay, of Berryville, Va., who had a handicap of three minutes. His time was 24½ minutes. The record for the course is held by "Pete" Boshier, of Richmond, who covered the distance in 21½ minutes. The second prize was silver medal, was won by Lucien Carr, of Winchester, Va., with a one-minute handicap. His time was 22:42. Third place was a tie between Cary Jacob, of Richmond, and Eastman. The former had a handicap of two minutes and the latter three minutes. Davis, of Lynchburg, Va., captain of the Cross-Country Club, running from scratch covered the course in 22:11, thereby winning the time prize, a sweater.

The run was the closest ever held at the university, four men being on the track at the finish. Other entries who made good time were Roberts, of the Newark High School Cross-Country Club, who finished in 22:02, and the Jersey Intercollegiate cross-country run, at Princeton; Ricks, formerly of Richmond College; Roberts, a freshman, who has shown great ability in distance events, having won the two-mile and half-mile runs at the recent track and field meet, and Woods and Harwood, of the football squad. The two last named had no special training for the event, but made a splendid showing. The time made to-day was considered very good, considering the muddy course.

This branch of sport, which was inaugurated three years ago by Athletic Director Lannigan, is making rapid strides at the university. Under his direction, much enthusiasm is being evoked. One afternoon recently as many as forty men participated in a run. The clerks and timers for today's run were Don P. and H. P. Goodwin, of California, and Lawrence Martin, of Charlottesville.

REGULARS WEAK ON THE DEFENSE. Scrubs Go Through for Two Touchdowns, to Coach's Exasperation.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 20.—One of the fiercest scrimmages of the season Virginia's varsity eleven this afternoon defeated the scrubs team, 18 to 11. The contest, which was lively from the very first, lasted fully fifty minutes, and wrought the scrubs up to a high pitch of excitement.

When the scrubs team, under the captaincy of Thaves, formerly of Richmond College, and one of the star tackles in the South, scored its second touchdown the crowd broke into vigorous applause, much to the chagrin of the regulars, who seemed to be exerting every energy to check the advance of their opponents. The scrubs showed their teeth in the first two minutes of play, when they held the varsity on their two-yard line. The regulars tried an inside kick, which was gotten by Grant. The ball was then booted to midfield. Five minutes later, after several exchanges of punts, Neff ploughed his way through the line for the initial touchdown, a Cecil field goal.

Yancey made the other two touchdowns for the varsity, after some terrific line plunging, and Cecil booted the pignish between the goal posts in each instance. Here it was that the scrubs got back. Vetterlein's kick was blocked soon after the kick off, and Kopp, coming fast down the field, scooped up the ball and plunged across the line for a touchdown. Grant missed the goal by a narrow margin.

Before five minutes had elapsed Quarter Back Grant, aided by splendid interference, skirted the varsity's left end for forty yards and a touchdown. The same player kicked the goal, bringing the scrubs back on to eleven.

Coach Cooke was so outdone at the poor defensive work of some of the regulars that he continued the scrimmage until it was actually too dark to see.

The early afternoon was devoted to a fast signal practice, in which all of the twenty-two players who will be taken to Richmond participated. Captain Gloth's knee, which is giving him much trouble, prevented his appearance on the field. Honaker was acting captain.

TECH IS READY FOR NAVY GAME

Team Is Hopeful of Reversing Scores of Past Few Years.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BLACKSBURG, VA., November 20.—The V. P. I. football team left on a midnight train last night for Washington, and from there will go on a special car, leaving White House Station at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, to Annapolis, where they play the Navy tomorrow afternoon. Nearly the entire student body was at the station to see the team off for what is regarded as the hardest game on the season's schedule.

Owing to the muddy condition of the athletic field and the cold weather, Coach Brown has only been able to give the team light signal practice this week, but with two exceptions the men who have played in nearly all the match games this season are in fine shape.

Jack Jones, the plucky right tackle, is still suffering with his ankle, and although he accompanied the varsity on the trip, will likely not be able to play. The hard player, B. L. Smith, will take his place if he has to retire from the game. Billups, right half on the eleven, is still on the sick list, and Davis will be in that position. Davis is the man who made the thirty-five-yard run over ice and snow in the game with George Washington here last Saturday.

V. P. I. played the Navy for the first time in 1903, beating them 11 to 0, and the figures telling the scores of the last three years are as follows: 1906, 14 to 0; 1907, 14 to 0; 1908, 14 to 0. In 1904 the Techs scored six points to the Navy's twelve; in 1906 and 1907 they failed to score, the Annapolites having won by 14 to 0, 14 to 0, and twelve to six.

"Did not Mr. Pratt and Mr. Rogers receive salaries for their work?" "I believe they did." Adjournment was then taken until Monday.

OBSCENE CARDS ARE UNDER BAN. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., November 20.—Federal authorities here are engaged in an effort to break up the practice of sending obscene or suggestive post cards through the mails, a case against Willie Cunningham, a sixteen-year-old colored youth, being the first result of this. The boy mailed a number of ugly cards, and Cecil field goal.

Yancey made the other two touchdowns for the varsity, after some terrific line plunging, and Cecil booted the pignish between the goal posts in each instance. Here it was that the scrubs got back. Vetterlein's kick was blocked soon after the kick off, and Kopp, coming fast down the field, scooped up the ball and plunged across the line for a touchdown.
